Okochi, Sato & Ohbayashi (2004: 1472, table 3) listed 2 Bipalium spp. from the Ogasawara Islands, Japan. It is clear that one of them is Bipalium muninense Kawakatsu, Sluys & Ogren, 2005. Cf. Kawakatsu, Froehlich, Jones, Ogren & Sasaki (2005: 87); Kawakatsu, Froehlich, Jones, Kawakatsu (M.-y.) & Kawakatsu (T.) (2006: 12).

Taiwan.

KWLP2007. P. 14. Diversibipalium sp. 2 of Vladivostok. Prozorova & Shumeev, 2007. Add the following item.

Bipalium sp.: Prozorova & Shumeev, 2007: 65-68, figs 1-5 (DB, DH, AE, photos of the pharynx and genital pore). Vladivostok / Russia.

Corrective Note. The last item of the UNDESCRIBED BIPALIID SPECIES in the KWLP2007 on p. 14. “Diversibipalium sp. of Vladivostok: Prozorova & Shumeev, 2007: 68” was an insufficient citation. See the revised item cited above.

Since two undescribed bipaliid species were recorded from Vladivostok, each of them is named tentatively as Diversibipalium sp. 1 of Vladivostok (by Kawakatsu, Chemyshev, Ogren & Murayama, 2000) and Diversibipalium sp. 2 of Vladivostok sp. 2 (by Prozorova & Shumeev, 2007).
